

Red Seal Journeyman Roofer

Interior Roofing – a well-established, growing, and reputable commercial roofing and sheet metal Company serving BC since 1976 – is seeking an experienced Red Seal Journeyman Roofer to join our dynamic team in Penticton, BC.

Our rapid growth has created the demand for a proven professional who can step in and immediately hit the ground running. We provide an exciting, fast-paced work environment with competitive compensation, performance incentives, and excellent benefits.

Compensation & Benefits

Hourly Rate: $35-37/hour (based on experience and attitude)

Performance Incentives

Full Benefits Package

Opportunity for advancement and continued growth

Essential Qualifications

Red Seal Journeyman Roofer Certification required

5 years minimum of experience with a commercial/residential roofing company

Basic computer knowledge

Experience working on crews while performing construction tasks to meet schedule and budget requirements

Demonstrated ability to work effectively with subcontractors, vendors, and team members

Commercial roofing experience with 2-ply and single-ply membranes, as well as metal roofing systems

Must be able to obtain security clearance and bonding

Valid driver's license

Essential Responsibilities

Execute daily workflow of assigned project(s) to finish on schedule within budgeted labor hours

Perform all work to meet the high-quality standards required by Interior Roofing
Work closely with production and material control functions

Effectively collaborate with crew members and report to Foreman,
Superintendent, and Project Manager

Maintain excellent relationships with contractors and inspectors

Ensure that strict safety standards are followed at all times

Report directly to Foreman and Superintendent

About Interior Roofing

Interior Roofing has been proudly serving the Okanagan and beyond since 1976. We are Core Certified with over 40 years of safe operations, specializing in commercial and residential roofing projects across BC. Our team of Red Seal certified professionals is committed to excellence, safety, and quality craftsmanship.

Interior Roofing is an equal opportunity employer with a drug-free workplace. We hire only the best and provide opportunities to be an integral part of our continued growth.

How to Apply

If you are capable of becoming one of the best Red Seal Journeyman Roofers in the region, please forward your resume and salary requirements to:

Email: team@interiorroofing.com

Phone: 1-250-492-7985

Address: 466 Dawson Avenue, Penticton, BC V2A 8E2

We look forward to hearing from you!